

Guidelines for Using the tekomp Logo

Members or companies are welcome to draw attention to tekomp in their public images, for example on their individual websites in sections that list their memberships or partners. Please note the following information.

It is not permissible to use the logo in such a way as to give the impression that the member or company is an official representative of tekomp Deutschland or tekomp Europe.

Members of tekomp Deutschland may only use one of the following logos:

The logos must link directly to the www.tekom.de WebPortal.
tekom members log in with their credentials and find the logos in the download section at <http://www.tekom.de/downloads>.

Members of tekomp Europe may only use one of the following logos:

The logos must link directly to the www.tekom.eu WebPortal.
tekom Europe members log in with their credentials and find the logos in the download section at <http://www.tekom.eu/downloads>.
